

2.6 Remuneration Policy

The Board of Directors is aware of remuneration to all directors, sub-committees and executives appropriately in accordance with the duties and responsibilities participation of each director. The remuneration of the company shall compare to the remuneration of similar types of business in other companies. The board of directors has assigned the nomination and remuneration committee to determine and review the criteria, policies and forms of consideration of compensation or other benefits to the board of directors and all sub-committees for presentation. The board of directors agreed before proposing to the shareholders' meeting for approval.

The remuneration for executives is in accordance with the criteria by the board of directors, which are linked to the performance of the company each year and the annual performance of each executive and will be submitted for approval from the meeting of the Board of Directors. In this regard, the consideration of remuneration for executives is appropriate for their duties, responsibilities, and sufficient to motivate and retain quality personnel.
