Adapting to the Digital World of Insurance

Wednesday, March 1st 2017
- 08:00 - 13:30

Royal Maneeya B,
Renaissance Bangkok Ratchaprasong Hotel
(Near BTS Chidlom)

The traditional insurance business model is widely expected to be swiftly disrupted at a high speed. Various digital inventors and adopters are marching into this battlefield looking for opportunities to revolutionize how insurance products are designed and delivered to satisfy increasingly demanding consumers. What do these changes mean to your company? Let's find out the answers in our special seminar.

Krating (Ruangroj Poonpol) "Godfather of Thai Tech Startup" (Forbes Thailand, 2015) is our guest speaker to spark your interest into the digital world of insurance.
